

Internship Application

Interning for Maine Democratic Party will be an educational and rewarding experience. Interns will have the opportunity to learn through first-hand participation in the political process. The program is intended to provide knowledge, skills, and experience that each intern can apply to future challenges and professional pursuits.

There are three programs for our Summer Internships:

5 Hours per Week- Spend a day each week in our office (Monday- Saturday)

15 Hours per Week- Engage for three days, becoming an integral part of the MDP Team.

30 Hours per Week- Immerse yourself in the campaign, gaining the skills to recruit, train, and manage your own volunteers.

Specialization available in the following fields:

Field

Finance

Communications

Information Technology

Completed applications with all appropriate supporting documents should be returned to Arden Manning, Executive Director, at the following e-mail:

amanning@mainedems.org

Once an internship packet has been reviewed by the internship supervisor, the intern candidate will be contacted and asked to schedule an interview. After the interview, each internship candidate will be notified as to whether he/she will be approved. Please contact Arden at 207-622-6233 with any questions about the application and hiring process.
